LUNCH WILL BE PROVIDED

AMERICAN INDIAN FAMILIES PARTNERSHIP
5809 N. FIGUEROA STREET, LA 90042

On Sunday, October 21, 2012, Catherine “Kateri” Tekakwitha became the first American Indian to be canonized a saint of the Catholic Church. Who was Kateri and what significance does her sainthood hold for American Indian Christians today?

RSVP to 323-274-1070

Please join Clementine Bordeaux and Rebecca Rosser for a discussion of this historic event. Rebecca will give a brief overview of Tekakwitha’s life, and Clementine will present photographs and screen clips from the video diary she is making of the canonization.

Clementine Bordeaux, MC, is the Academic Coordinator of the UCLA American Indian Studies Interdepartmental Program.

Rebecca Rosser, MFA, PhD, is the Assistant Director of the UCLA American Indian Studies Center.
