Hello Pamela,

My greetings and may this letter find you, your family & your colleagues in the new best of hope and health with the Great Spirit's love, care and good spirits surrounding all of you.

Thank you very much for the Tzucarran information. Great reading Pamela. However silly me write down the wrong tribe name... oops! ☹️

It is the Tarasco tribe in Mexico ok. Could you please see what you can find on them? - Thank you much! -

Also, my cellmate is of Asian decent. He is "Mong". What do you think you can find on his people on the internet? They use to live in Mongolia but now they have no country. He too is trying to learn all he can about his history and culture Pamela, can you send anything to me for him? His name is James.

Ok now! I can not believe they took the earrings! That is twice that has happened. And there were also a 8 1/2 x 11 1/2 (Bk & white) of me and 7 other Indian kids from the Pon wow in Soledad last year. So you could see who we are.

Well don't worry, we have a procedure now to mail out beadwork through

Receiving + Release (R + R).

As soon as I get this heading material package I'll make you a couple of pairs of earrings now.

The ones I had sent were the school colors, man that is so wrong for someone to take them.

We are still waiting on our new spiritual advisor to be hired on officially now.

So that is the latest my friend. Oh wait, do you or the University have any kind of books that can be donated to our Prison Library "C" facility for inmates to read. That's mostly how we get the things now. if the school does? you can call Mr. Porter, Principal CIM-Education.

Our library here is a small mess with very little Pamela. So my help there is so great. Thank you much!

I'm in the mind. Take care and walk strong and true in your daily walk. Write later....

All My Relations

Sincerely,
Nick

Dear Nick :

Thank you for your letter dated May 27th. I have enclosed some materials printed from the Internet for your Tuscarora acquaintance. I hope he finds them useful.

Also thanks for keeping me informed about shipping requirements. Prisons vary on their regulations and I send books to people who request them without looking up the prison regulations online (it's too time-consuming). So I am happy to know that the books are received. I am glad to hear that your spiritual advisor will be able to accept books and other materials.

You asked if I'd received your most recent letter with earrings included. No, I have not received those. There must be a regulation against that. I appreciate the thought, however.

Sincerely,

Pamela Grieman
