Dear Dr. Champagne,

Greetings My name is Roy and I am a Mohawk Indian. I am currently in Prison in New York State. I got your name and Address from "Native America, Portrait of the Peoples" I am very active in the struggle for Native Rights in Prison. In New York we won the right to hold 9 Ceremonies a year and to have a mens group that meets once a week to study and learn songs.

The reason I am writing you is two fold, I'd like to ask you for a copy of your culture & research Journal. I'd also like to know if you would be willing to donate some old books on native history, religion, cultural teachings, or any native topic to help us start a small collection of books for our group. They can be on any Native Peoples. Our groups are not just Iroquois we have guys who are Lakota, Inuit, and ~~and~~ Osibway. Our goal is to have books on different Native Peoples so if someone comes we have a book for them.

Any help or advice you may have will be greatly appreciated. I want to thank you for your time and for all of your efforts in this matter. I look forward to your response.

Respectfully;

Roy

Dear Roy :

Thank you for your letter of August 28, 2006 requesting books on Native history and other topics. I checked with our librarian, and he agreed to donate the enclosed six books for your group's use. The titles are: The White Roots of Peace, Ojibway Tales, The History and Culture of Iroquois Diplomacy: An Interdisciplinary Guide to the Treaties of the Six Nations and Their League, Wisconsin Chippewa Myths and Tales: And Their Relation to Chippewa Life, The Indians of the Western Great Lakes: 1615-1760, and Washakie: Chief of the Shoshones. I have also included a copy of the American Indian Culture and Research Journal per your request.

The books contain reference pages at the back which can lead you to other titles you may be interested in acquiring.

I hope you enjoy the enclosed books.

Sincerely,
