To: Ms Grieman

On September 17th 2003. I did receive the 3 books that you kindly sent to me to help me understand my culture. I did enjoy the reading and found them to be very interesting as well as educational.

Those copies were Exemplar of Liberty, The unheard Voices; The American Indian response to the Columbian Quincentary 1492-1992 and Comeupence at Kicking Horse Casino.

I would request a catalogue of some of the other books that you have at your disposal, so that I may purchase a few more books.

In addition to these novels, I've also started receiving my reservation news paper. it is called The Fort Belknap community news paper The Voice of the Aa-AH-Ni-NEN and Nakode Nations, or Gros Ventre and Assiniboine Nations.

but in any case I am very thankful for all of the information that I have learned from, the books and the bi-weekly newspaper that I receive.

Thank you for your time and consideration

Sincerely
Frank

Dear Frank :

I am happy to know that you received and have enjoyed the three books we sent to you. As you'll see from the enclosed publications catalogues, we primarily publish scholarly books, but we do occasionally publish literature books (poems, plays, short stories) as well.

We have a very small staff at the Center, so sometimes it takes a while to respond to correspondence, but we are happy to send you books free of charge.

Thanks for your interest.

Sincerely,
