

Indian Law & Order Commission:

Troy A. Eid; Affie Ellis; Tom Gede; Carol E. Goldberg; Jefferson Keel;
Earl Pomeroy; Theresa M. Pouley; Ted Quasula; and, Stephanie Herseth-Sandlin

August 31, 2011

Re: Tribal Leader / Expert Testimony on Tribal Justice and/or Juvenile Justice Issues
in Indian Country
Wed., Sept. 7th, 2011 in Tulalip, WA

Dear Esteemed Tribal Leaders and/or Tribal Legal Experts:

You are invited to attend the Tribal Law & Order
Act— Indian Law & Order Commission meeting to be held on the Tulalip Indian Reservation. The ILOC Commission will be accepting 10 to 15 minutes of oral testimony from you on tribal justice and/or juvenile justice issues in Indian Country.

Specifically, we'd like to know your concerns as they relate to recommendations for change of Tribal / State / & Federal laws and what gaps you identify in tribal justice and/or juvenile justice issues on Tribal lands.

We will be accepting testimony on a first-come, first-serve basis; please give us advance notice if you would like to participate by calling Jennifer Khaw at 360 / 716-4780 or, Wendy Church at 360 / 716-4778 to be added to the Testimony List.

Special note: please also bring with you a thumb drive of your written testimony—preferably in a Word format).

When: Wed., Sept. 7th, 2011
Where: Tulalip Resort Casino (Phone: 360 / 716-6000)
Tulalip, Washington (35 miles north of Seattle – Exit #200 off of I-5)
Room: Orca Ballroom – (see sign posted at door)
Time: 9:00 a.m. to 5:00 p.m.
Weather: Low 70's

We greatly look forward to seeing you soon.

Indian Law & Order Commission